FOREWORD

These pieces are written for any combination of 3-4 brass and woodwind instruments. The trio version (Players 1-3) includes the melody and will sound complete on its own, and can be expanded to accommodate larger ensembles. By utilizing the 4th Player part to create a quartet, the 4th Player plays an obbligato part that will make the group sound more sophisticated. This part is perfect for a more advanced player or teacher. The optional piano part will also make performances sound more full and interesting.

Books are published separately:
