FOREWORD

The duets in this collection are suitable for contest, recital and private study. All parts are within the ranges of and playable by bells, xylophone, vibes or marimba. Mallet and roll suggestions on xylophone and marimba are included.

These duets are varied in style and represent some of the greatest composers down through the ages. The many benefits derived from duet playing include: the ability to listen and relate one's part to the other, blend, balance and rhythmic precision. These elements will greatly enhance each performer's experience of playing in an ensemble.
